Bo. Whiteside is in receipt of a trunk full of new clothing, contributed by friends in Douglas, to replace his loss sustained in the depot fire of June 9. The selections evidence rare judgment and Bo. says he hardly feels that he lost his trunk. The trunk contained numerous pieces of costly underwear made of thin and gauzy fabrics and elegantly embroidered hosiery, suitable for either male or female wear, in the "Good Old Summer Time." The trunk also contained a box of cigars, several uncut neckties and a beautiful highly plated watch. Bo. tried to make a borrow on the watch from the money kings of Park avenue, but they only whistled, "Mr. Dooley."

One day this week William Colburn received a box of moss, ferns, shells and other stuff from the sea, a gift from his highly esteemed friend Henry Van Derleck of the Southwestern Commercial Company, who is on the Pacific Coast. To say Billy was delighted with his sea-scented present would indeed be putting it mild. Being an old sea dog himself, the contents of that box made him home sick to once again behold the briny deep, and if one of these times he turns up missing, the writer will know where to find him. Billy, who is one of the most generous hearted fellows in the world, did not keep all the pleasure of that salt-scented present for himself, but passed it around among those of his Nogales friends who are fond of the ocean and its wonderful mysteries. They all appreciate Mr. Van Derleck's thoughtfulness in sending the present.

Thursday morning John Henderson, one of the best known and most thorough mining men in the state of Sonora, left for the Altar district on important mining business. He will return home tomorrow evening.

W. I. Horner, a well known Phoenix capitalist, who for a month past had been visiting the property of the Cieneguita Mining Company, of which George Beebe is general manager, left yesterday morning for home after stopping in Nogales several days awaiting the arrival of his baggage which had become separated from him at Torres. Mr. Horner who holds Cieneguita stock, is very enthusiastic over the mines owned by the company, and the manner in which they are being operated. He thinks they are destined to become big producers and those holding stock will receive good returns for their money. After spending a few days in Phoenix Mr. Horner will go to the coast for the remainder of the summer. Mrs. Horner has been there several months.

Fred L. Barnett, U. S. Immigration and Chinese inspector, who a short time ago came to Nogales from El Paso, Texas, where for many years he had been connected with the customs house, left Thursday for Naco, Arizona, where he will for the present make his headquarters. The gentleman has been promoted and will have charge of all the immigration inspectors in this district, a position he is well qualified to fill. Although but a short time a resident of Nogales Fred made many friends by his close attention to the government's business and kind treatment to all with whom he came in contact. He will be greatly missed by his brother officials, all of whom liked him. The fact that his new duties will occasionally bring him to Nogales makes his going less hard to bear.
